

Introduced by Senator Berryhill

February 22, 2013

An act to amend Section 21603 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to business.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 757, as introduced, Berryhill. Junk dealers and recyclers.

Existing law regulates secondhand dealers and coin dealers, as defined, and makes a violation of those provisions a misdemeanor. Existing law regulates junk dealers and recyclers, as defined, and makes a violation of those provisions a misdemeanor.

This bill would provide that the provisions governing junk dealers and recyclers do not apply to secondhand dealers or coin dealers, as defined.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 21603 of the Business and Professions
- 2 Code is amended to read:
- 3 21603. This article shall not apply to any of the following:
- 4 (a) Secondhand furniture merchants.
- 5 (b) Pawnbrokers.
- 6 (c) Secondhand car dealers or merchants in connection with
- 7 automobile and motor vehicle sales agencies but not carried on
- 8 and conducted in conjunction with a junk yard.
- 9 (d) Persons engaged in the business of selling new automobile
- 10 tires or batteries or other equipment taking in part payment used

- 1 articles of the same kind and thereafter selling or disposing of the
- 2 same.
- 3 (e) Secondhand oil well supply and equipment dealers not
- 4 conducting or carrying on their business in connection with a junk
- 5 yard.
- 6 (f) Secondhand clothing merchants and ragpickers.
- 7 (g) Secondhand dealers or coin dealers, as defined in Section
- 8 21626.